Numb. 13116.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday July 21, to Saturday July 25, 1789.

Whitehall, July 25.

THE King has been pleaſed to grant to Samuel Bentham, Eſq; Colonel of the Regiment of Rajſk, in the Service of her Imperial Majeſty of all the Ruſſias, His Royal Licence and Permiſſion to accept and wear (in his own Country) the Croſs of the Military Order of St. George, conferred on him by her ſaid Imperial Majeſty, in Teſtimony of her moſt gracious Approbation of his Conduct; and alſo to order that this His Majeſty's Conceſſion and Declaration be regiſtered in His College of Arms.

Whitehall, July 25.

The following Addreſſes having been tranſmitted or delivered to the Right Honourable William Wyndham Grenville, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him preſented to the King: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commiſſioners from the Royal Boroughs of Scotland, in general Annual Convention aſſembled, embrace this firſt Opportunity to approach your Majeſty with Sentiments of ſincere Congratulation on your Recovery from the ſevere Indiſpoſition with which you have been afflicted.

Our Joy in the Re-eſtabliſhment of your Majeſty's Health is a natural Effect of that Perſonal Attachment which your Subjects feel from their Experience of the Virtues by which you have adorned the Throne of theſe Kingdoms.

On this Occaſion we reflect with high Satisfaction and Gratitude on the Bleſſings we have enjoyed under your Majeſty's Reign; the Protection of Religion and of our Liberties; the Encouragement of Manufactures and uſeful Arts; the Extenſion of our Commerce, and the Rank, which, through your Majeſty's wiſe Councils, Great Britain holds among the Nations of Europe.

May Heaven grant to your Majeſty long Life and Health to ſway the Sceptre over a free and happy People; and may ſucceeding Generations, under Princes of your Illuſtrious Line, enjoy ſuch National Felicity as we experience under your Majeſty's Government. Theſe are the earneſt Wiſhes of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects,

The Commiſſioners from the Royal Boroughs of Scotland, in General Annual Convention aſſembled.

Signed in our Preſence, and by our Appointment, this 16th Day of July, 1789, by

Tho. Elder, Præſes.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Cuſtos, Magiſtrates, Merchants, and other Inhabitants of the Town of Kingſton, in the Iſland of Jamaica.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Cuſtos, Magiſtrates, Merchants and other Inhabitants of the Town of Kingſton, in your Majeſty's Iſland of Jamaica, impreſſed with the livelieſt Senſe of Gratitude to Diviue Providence for the Reſtoration of your Majeſty's Health, beg Leave to approach the Throne with Aſſurances of our Loyalty, Affection and Attachment to your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon and Government.

We participate in the general Joy with the Reſt of your Majeſty's faithful Subjects on this auſpicious Event.

May your Majeſty's Reign be long, proſperous and happy, a Bleſſing to all your People; and may there never be wanting in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Brunſwick, Princes to fill the Britiſh Throne to the lateſt Poſterity.

[Tranſmitted by Lieutenant Governor Clarke.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Council of Jamaica:

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Council of Jamaica, impreſſed with an Anxiety which nothing but the Occaſion that urges us could raiſe, beg Leave to teſtify, though in Terms inadequate to our Feelings, our Joy at your Majeſty's happy Recovery from your late Indiſpoſition.

HALFPENNY
HALFPENNY

In this Hour of univerſal Exultation, we join the general Voice of Praiſe to the Almighty, that He hath hearkened to the Prayers of our Affliction; that His Mercy hath alleviated our Diſtreſs; and that we behold, in the Re-eſtabliſhment of your Majeſty's Health, the Vigour of the Political Conſtitution of England reſtored.

Diſtant as we are from your Royal Throne, and unbleſt with a Participation in that Happineſs which your Majeſty's Royal Preſence, the Image of Domeſtic and National Proſperity, communicates to your more favoured Subjects, we rejoice in the more extenſive Influence of your Majeſty's auſpicious Government; the Preſervation of National Tranquillity; the Extenſion, through your Majeſty's Care, of the Commerce and Credit of the Britiſh Empire; and the Experience of every Civil and Religious Enjoyment under the Protection of the Laws: Theſe, Sire, are the Bleſſings that deſcribe your Majeſty's Reign to the remoteſt Corners of your Dominions.

May God long preſerve your Majeſty in that Health which His Providence has reſtored; that you may long live to His Glory, our great Guardian and Protector in the Perſonal Exerciſe of the Royal Functions you have reſumed, and the beſt Security for that general Happineſs of which you reign the Author in the Hearts of an affectionate, dutiful and loyal People!

Paſſed the Council the 29th Day of May, 1789.

[Tranſmitted by Lieutenant Governor Clarke.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Council and Aſſembly of the Iſland of Montſerrat.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty!

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subject, the Members of the Council and Aſſembly of your Majeſty's Iſland of Montſerrat, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on your happy Recovery from your late Indiſpoſition.

We acknowledge, with ſincere Gratitude, the Goodneſs of the Supreme Diſpoſer of Events, in attending to the Prayers of your loyal and affectionate People, and in reſtoring your Majeſty to the ardent Wiſhes of your faithful Subjects in every Part of your extenſive Empire.

Long may your Majeſty continue the faithful Guardian of the Rights of a loyal and united People; and we fervently pray that the Period may be far diſtant when your Majeſty ſhall be called from the Poſſeſſion of a Temporal, to the Enjoyment of an Eternal Crown.

Alex. Gordon, Preſident of the Council.
Thomas Harcum, Speaker of the Aſſembly.

[Tranſmitted by the Preſident and Speaker.]
Montſerrat, April 30, 1789.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Council and Aſſembly of the Iſland of Grenada, and the Grenadines dependent thereon.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

THE Members of Council, and Repreſentatives of the People in General Aſſembly of Grenada, ever ſenſible of the Happineſs they enjoy under your Majeſty's paternal Care and Protection, beg Leave to approach the Throne with Sentiments of the moſt ſteady Loyalty, and of the warmeſt Attachment to your Royal Perſon.

They had long been accuſtomed to conſider the Increaſe of either as an Impoſſibility, but the Emotions they now experience point out their Error, and convince them that the deepeſt Loſſes moſt powerfully tend to enhance the Value of Re-enjoyment. From your Majeſty's Indiſpoſition was apprehended the Privation of their firſt and greateſt Bleſſing. The Return of Health to their beloved Monarch removes their Anxiety and Diſtreſs, and gives Birth to Senſations of ſuch a Nature as Language can but poorly expreſs.

To the Almighty Diſpoſer of all Events they lift their Hearts with Gratitude for the Happineſs thus beſtowed upon all your joyful Subjects. To your Majeſty they requeſt Permiſſion to offer the moſt ſincere and heartfelt Congratulations on your Recovery, and upon your being again able to reſume the Exerciſe of your Royal Authority; and at the ſame Time they with infinite Pleaſure ſeize this Opportunity of expreſſing their fervent Wiſhes that uninterrupted Health and Felicity may ever be the Portion of their Sovereign; and that through Life your Majeſty may uniformly enjoy that higheſt human Happineſs, the Bliſs of Bleſſing others.

By Command,

Ben. Webſter, Clerk of the Council.
David C. Lunie, Clerk of the Aſſembly.

[Tranſmitted by Samuel Williams, Eſq;]

Unto the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The Addreſs of the Provincial Synod of Glenelg.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and moſt faithful Subjects, the Miniſters and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Glenelg, met in Synod for the firſt Time ſince your Majeſty's happy Recovery from your late alarming Illneſs, beg Leave to join with our moſt unfeigned Congratulations the other Societies of our Fellow-Subjects, whoſe Hearts overflowing with Gratitude to the King of Kings for His gracious Mercy to the Nation, have prompted them to croud around the Throne, echoing their Acclamations of Joy, in a Manner, no Doubt, painful to that amiable Senſibility which adorns the many Graces of your Majeſty's Character, but ſufficient to convince the Kings of the Earth, that a Sovereign formed on your Example will ever be eſteemed as the Father, and careſſed as the Darling of His People.

In this remote Corner of the Land, where Diſaffection was once thought to prevail, your Majeſty's public and private Virtues, and the Attention paid during the whole of your Majeſty's beneficent Reign to the Civil and Religious Intereſts of the Country, had entirely conciliated the Minds of every Denomination of Men.

The Continuance of the Royal Bounty for Reformation of the Highlands and Iſlands, the lenient Intention of Government in reſtoring the forfeited Eſtates, the additional Appointment of Judges and Magiſtrates for the legal Adminiſtration of Juſtice, your Majeſty's paternal Goodneſs in ſupplying the Poor with Bread in Seaſons of Scarcity, and the Exertions made by patriotic Men under your Majeſty's Auſpices to promote a Spirit of Induſtry and Improvement among the Inhabitants of this Coaſt, will be for ever acknowledged with the liveliest Sense of Gratitude.

will

During the Gloom which lately overspread the Minds of all your Majesty's loving Subjects, permit us, Sire, to assure you, that in no Part of your Majesty's Dominions was more anxious Concern felt than within the Bounds of this Synod.

And when the blessed Tidings were announced of that seasonable Interposition of Divine Providence, which restored the best and most beloved of Sovereigns to the united Prayers of a great and happy People, and to the generous Wishes of neighbouring Nations, who have rejoiced with this rejoicing Land, those Expressions of Gladness, which your Majesty witnessed in the Seat of Government, were no less sincere and ardent in the remotest of the British Isles.

It shall be our constant Labour and Study to cherish those Sentiments of Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Goverment among the People committed to our Care. And

That God, by whom Kings reign, may long preserve your Majesty's Life, to be a Blessing to this Nation; that He may bless your Royal Consort our most gracious and amiable Queen, the Prince of Wales, and all the Princes and Princesses of your Illustrious House; that you may behold the increasing Prosperity and Happiness of your Family and Kingdoms, till, full of Years and good Works, you resign an earthly for an heavenly Crown; and that the Descendants of your Royal Body, inheriting yonr Majesty's Virtues, may sit on the Throne of these Realms to the End of Time, are the earnest Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most loyal, most faithful,
most affectionate, most devoted Subjects,
The Ministers and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Glenelg.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment, at Dunvegan, the 1st Day of July, 1789, by Murdoch Mac Iver, Moderator.

[Delivered by Sir Archibald Macdonald, His Majesty's Attorney-General.]

The following Address having been transmitted to the Earl of Ailesbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majesty's Houshold. has been by him presented to the Queen: Which Address Her Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the QUEEN.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Commissioners from the Royal Boroughs of Scotland, in General Annual Convention assembled, beg Leave to congratulate our Gracious Queen on the Recovery of our Sovereign from His late Indisposition.

While we rejoice in this Event as a Public Blessing to the Nation, we take a grateful Interest in the Feelings of your Majesty on an Occasion so immediately connected with your Happiness. The Respect and Affection with which we and all our Fellow Subjects look up to your Majesty as an illustrious Pattern of those Virtues which give Dignity to Greatness, render us happy in an Opportunity of expressing to you our Sentiments of Joy on a Subject so near to your Majesty's Heart.

That God may long preserve our King and Queen, and that every Comfort and Blessing may attend your Majesty through Life, are the Wishes and Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,
The Commissioners from the Royal Boroughs of Scotland, in General Annual Convention assembled.

Stockholm, June 30.

Intelligence has been received here that, on the 18th Inſtant, a Ruſſian Corps, under the Command of General Michelſon, attacked the Swediſh Troops at St. Michel, commanded by Colonel Steding. The Action began at Midnight, in which the Swedes kept their Ground, and fought very bravely for ſeveral Hours; but Colonel Steding, perceiving that the Enemy muſt at Length ſucceed in turning his Front, and attacking him in the Flank, thought it prudent, in order to ſave his Men and Artillery, to evacuate St. Michel, and retreat to Jockas; which he effected with a very trifling Loſs, having ſaved all his Baggage and Stores, except the Powder Magazine, which he blew up, to prevent its falling into the Hands of the Enemy. In conſequence of this Retreat, the Ruſſians have entered into Sawolax. On the other Hand, the King, at the Head of a Corps of about 5000 Men, with Fifty Pieces of Cannon, has paſſed the River Kymene, and made an Irruption, near Keltys, into Ruſſian Finland.

Stockholm, July 3.

A Courier who arrived Yeſterday Morning with Letters from the King to the Queen, the Prince Royal and Baron Armfelt, brought the firſt News of an Action between the Troops under his Majeſty's Command and a Corps of Ruſſians, whom he met on the 28th paſt within Two Miles of Davidſtat. His Majeſty mentions no Particulars in his Letters, only that he had defeated the Enemy, without receiving any Hurt himſelf: But the Courier reports that the King, with only 2,000 of his Troops, which compoſed the Van Guard, without waiting for the Reſt of his Army, advanced to charge the Enemy, who amounted to about 5,600 Men: That the Ruſſians ſtood the Fire of the Swedes, with great Intrepidity, for a conſiderable Time, and in their Turn attacked the Swedes with Bayonets fixed, which occaſioned the latter to retreat about Twenty Paces; but that being inſtantly rallied by his Majeſty, who alighted from his Horſe, and encouraged them in Perſon, they returned to the Charge, and put the Enemy to Flight: That the Ruſſians in their Retreat having paſſed a Defile, the Swedes in the Purſuit diſcovered another Body of the Enemy, drawn up in a Line, at the oppoſite Extremity; which Situation not permitting an Attack with any Proſpect of Succeſs, the Swedes deſiſted; but that, making a circular March through a Wood, they charged the Ruſſians in Flank, and entirely routed them. The Loſs on the Side of the Swedes is reported to be Three Officers and about 150 Men killed, and Three Officers and nearly 100 Men wounded. The Loſs of the Enemy cannot be aſcertained, as they carried off their Dead.

Paris, July 20.

Every Thing is now quiet in this Capital. The Militia perform the Duty of the Police ſo effectually as to prevent every Species of Robbery and Pillage. The Troops are moving away as faſt as poſſible, and there are no Soldiers in the Neighbourhood of Paris, except the French and Swiſs Regiments. The Duc de Chatelet has reſigned the Command of the French Guards. The King has reſtored M. de Montmorin to the Department of Foreign Affairs, from which he had been removed, and has appointed M. de St. Prieſt Secretary of State for the Home Department, in the Room of M. de Villedeuil. The Duc de Liancourt is choſen Preſident of the National Aſſembly, in the Room of the Archbiſhop of Vienne, whoſe Time was expired. M. Necker is not yet arrived.

Royal Hoſpital for Seamen at Greenwich,
